

The Caribbean UK Film Festival ©

10–11 July 2011

V&A

Look | Think | Create

The Caribbean UK Film Festival ©

10–11 July 2011

www.vam.ac.uk/whatson
020 7942 2211

The Caribbean UK Film Festival ©

Sunday 10 & Monday 11 July
Lydia and Manfred Gorvy Lecture Theatre
10.30–17.30

Discover 1960s British Caribbean heritage on the big screen. Join the debate in 'An Audience With' special guests and a host of stars from the '60s, and see films about fashion, music, sport and culture. The event is hosted by actor Geff Francis, star of Ashes to Ashes, and Charles Thompson, founder of the Screen Nation Awards.

£20 for one day, £30 for two days, no concessions
Book online at www.vam.ac.uk/whatson
or call 020 7942 2211

Generation to Generation © British Caribbean Heritage in the Public Services

Sunday 10 & Monday 11 July
Seminar Room 2, Sackler Centre
10.30–17.30

Discover more about the evolution of British Caribbean society in the 1960s and the impact of key events in this fascinating presentation. Learn the individual stories of members of Britain's public services, including the NHS, the Royal Navy, the London Fire Brigade and the Metropolitan Police Force, and enjoy a special viewing of images by renowned filmmaker Horace Ove, taken from his private collection.

Free, drop-in

All events are jointly organised with Gabriel Media International™, with support from the British Film Institute, London Transport Museum and London College of Fashion

Upcoming Black Heritage events at the V&A

Spotlight on Africa and the Diaspora

African Collections Revealed
Saturday 19 November
12.00–17.00

People Get Ready The Protest Years 1970–2000

Friday 21 October
18.30–22.00

Find out more and book online at www.vam.ac.uk/whatson
or call 020 7942 2211

Admission free

Victoria and Albert Museum

⊕ South Kensington, Knightsbridge
Buses C1, 14, 74 & 414

GABRIEL MEDIA INTERNATIONAL

Images ©TfL from the London Transport Museum collection:
Bus Conductress, 1962 ©Agatha Hart;
Bus Conductor, 1964 © Donald Hines